FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sunday is Oak Brook Polo Family Day!

Oak Brook, Illinois – July 26, 2013 – After an exciting opening last Friday to the Oak Brook Polo Season, this Sunday, July 28, promises to be one of the biggest and most exciting days of the Oak Brook polo season. The theme is Oak Brook Family Day, where there will not only be 2 great polo matches, but fun things for the whole family to do to.

This first match starts at 1:00 p.m. on the historic Oak Brook Polo Club grounds. “Family Day will be great fun for polo fans and their families” said Gopal Lalmalani, Village President. “In addition to great polo, we will have face painters and balloon artists. Also, Tesla and Porsche will each have a few cars on display.” Tickets for face painters will be $2 and balloon artists are $1.

A portion of the General Admission and VIP tickets will benefit Ronald McDonald House Charities (RMHC) of Chicagoland and Northwest Indiana.

In 2013, there will be a total of four (4) more dates following Sunday’s match. The additional matches will take place on the following dates with the following thrilling themes:

- Sunday, August 18th (1:00 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. matches)–Classic Car Day
- Sunday, August 25th (1:00 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. matches)– TBA
- Sunday, September 15th (1:00 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. matches)–UK Day
- Sunday, September 22nd (1:00 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. matches)–Argentina Day

Do you want to experience polo and watch the exciting “Game of Kings,” at one of the finest polo clubs in America? This is the field where players from around the world have traveled to compete in prestigious polo tournaments – even Prince Charles played in Oak Brook in 1986!

About Oak Brook:

Founded in 1958, the Village of Oak Brook is located 15 miles west of downtown Chicago and is in proximity to the junction of Interstates 88, 294, and 290. The Village consists mostly of residential subdivisions, with the exception of the Oak Brook Center shopping mall, other retail and office properties along 22nd Street and Interstate 88. Oak Brook is the home of many corporate offices, most notably, the world headquarters of McDonald's Corporation, Ace Hardware, Tree House Foods, Inland Real Estate and the service club organization Lions Clubs International. Oak Brook is also known for being one of the few municipalities in the Chicago area that does not levy a property tax on residents or businesses.
